Pilot Public Art/ Creative Imagery Project for Tom Hornecker Recreation Centre Exterior

Town of Nanton

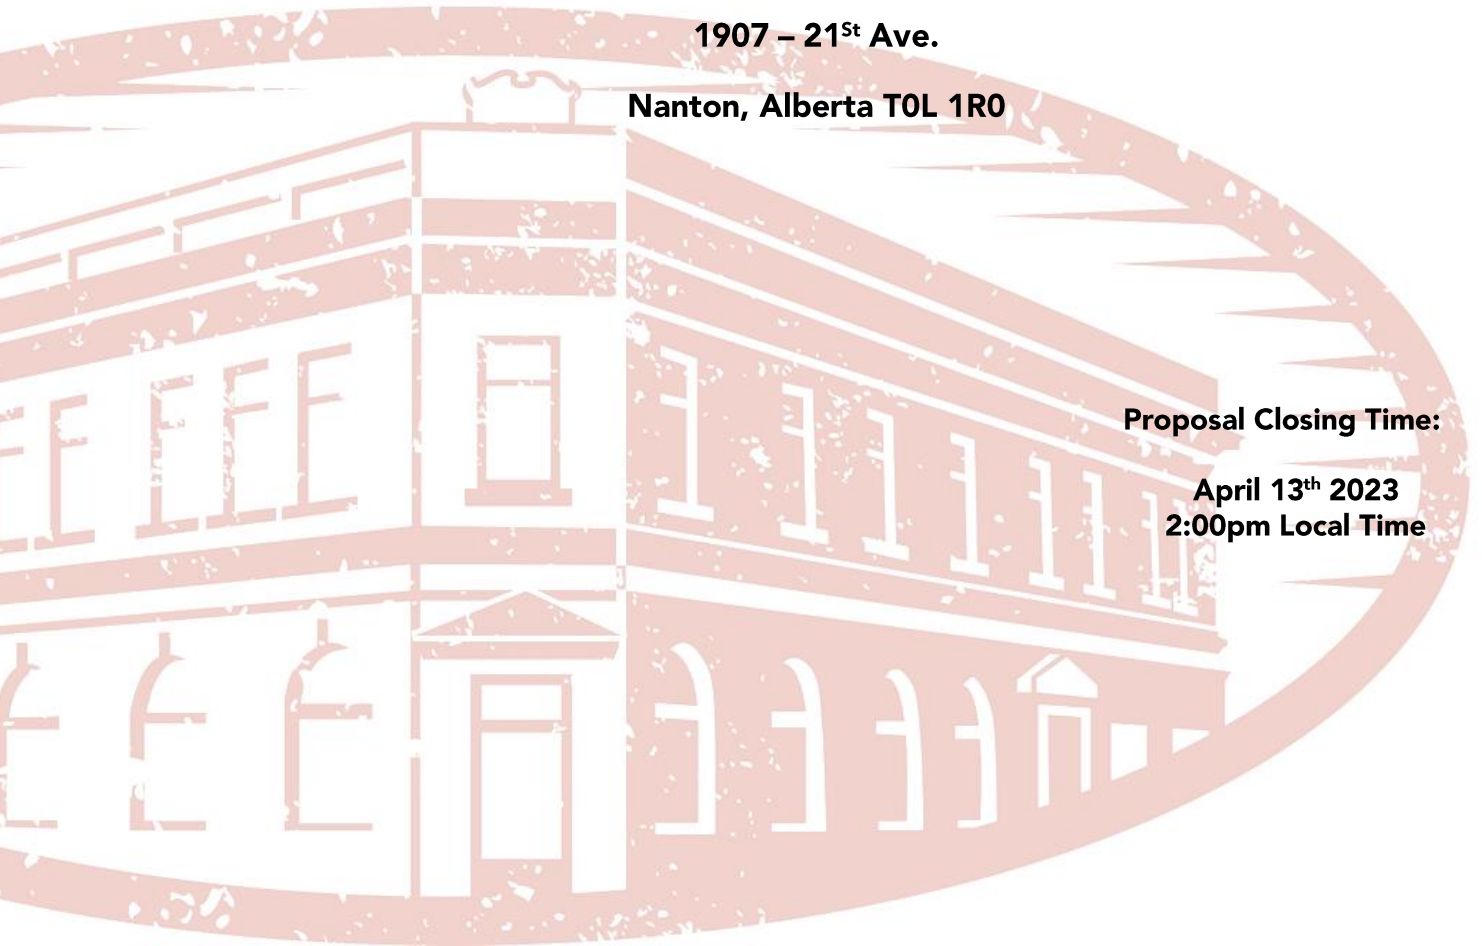

Box 609

1907 – 21st Ave.

Nanton, Alberta T0L 1R0

Proposal Closing Time:

April 13th 2023
2:00pm Local Time

Scope

Town of Nanton Council has determined that there should be an exploration of the potential that the exterior of the Tom Hornecker Recreation offers the community, particularly the downtown/ commercial core areas, in terms of attractive and creative imagery. The global budget for the project, including production and installation, is a maximum of $5,000.

For that purpose, a modest budget has been allocated for a project that will allow something new to be installed on a southwest section of the building wall/ façade:

Approximate area for project

The project could be:

- A licensed image or piece of art that would be reproduced digitally and attached to an aluma or dibond panel installed on the building; OR
- Decorative metal silhouette work installed on a section or sections of wall.

Appropriate subject matters or themes could include, but are not limited to:

- Local sports achievements.
- Nanton Marlins/ Skate Club/ Palominos.
- Local historic or nostalgic imagery;
- Artistic concepts;
- Nanton's 120th anniversary of incorporation as a municipality
- Local landscape or wildlife features.

Potential respondents/ participants:

- Artists
- Local residents, societies/ clubs and businesses
- Local students (elementary or high school)

Examples:

Phase 1/ Scope of Work:

Submission of a proposed concept outline, explaining the vision; rudimentary sketches or proposed images can be provided. Any prospective artists or owners of licensed images are to indicate an approximate fee for work, licensing or rights in their submission.

Phase 2/ Next Steps:

A committee will review the conceptual outlines and determine what it will recommend to Council.

Vision Concept:

The resulting installation is expected to:

- Engage the community at large
- Serve as a memorable and welcoming landmark
- Serve as a source of pride or interest for the community

Proposals must be submitted, quoting this RFP, via email to cao@nanton.ca by 2pm April 13th 2023.
